

Black History Reading Challenge

SANTA FE
PUBLIC LIBRARY

January - March 2025

FRIENDS of the Santa Fe
Public Library

RULES: To participate, complete 3 reading challenges or double your chances of winning by completing all reading challenges.

Read in any format (book, ebook, audiobook, etc.).

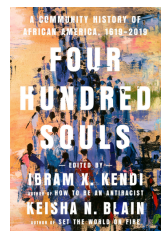

Need help finding an appropriate title? Visit a Librarian for reading suggestions or email us at library@santafenm.gov.

PRIZES: Participants will be put in a raffle to win prizes. 15 winners will receive a new copy of Four Hundred Souls by Ibram X. Kendi (Editor), Keisha N. Blain (Editor). Grand prize winner will receive a $50 gift certificate for Jambo Cafe.

To enter, bring in your completed challenge to a librarian at SFPL. You may also scan or take a photo of your completed challenge and email to library@santafenm.gov.

Deadline: March 8, 2025

Write a short reflection of what you have read and learned:

Name: _____

Phone: _____

Email: _____

SANTA FE
PUBLIC LIBRARY

Select 3 reading challenges or double your chances of winning by completing all reading challenges below!

Read something about a Black creative, visual artist, or musician.

I read:

I learned:

Read a title written by a Harlem Renaissance figure.

I read:

I learned:

Read about an American Civil Rights figure.

I read:

I learned:

Read a book about the Black Panthers.

I read:

I learned:

Read a modern title about Black history, race, or culture.

I read:

I learned:

Read a title by a Black author from New Mexico. (e.g. Anita Scott Coleman, Bettye Kearse, Darryl Lorenzo Wellington, Dr. Timothy E. Nelson, etc.).

I read:

I learned:

Read something about Black Joy.

I read:

I learned:

Read a work by an African American literary great (e.g. Maya Angelou, Amiri Baraka, Octavia Butler, Ralph Ellison, Toni Morrison, Alice Walker, etc.).

I read:

I learned:

Read something about Afrofuturism.

I read:

I learned:

